FESTIVAL FAMILY FUN DAY

DATE: SUNDAY 7TH AUGUST
LOCATION: LAGAN WALKWAY
TIME: 11AM - 4PM
ADMISSION: FREE

The highlight of every year is our massive family friendly event that is held across a stretch of the Lagan walkway from Shaftesbury Recreation Centre right up to the Albert Bridge.

This year we've gone all out to feature a bigger and better music stage & lineup, more activities to keep the kids entertained and a bigger range of watersports, food stalls and circus shows.

Check out the full list of what you can expect to find on our trail map opposite and make sure you walk the whole length as you never know what wierd and wonderful experiences you might come across...watch out for the T-Rex!

TRAD NIGHT @ ST GEORGE'S

ft. MÁIRTÍN O'CONNOR, CATHAL HAYDEN, SEAMIE O'DOWD TRIO & MORE

DATE: MONDAY 8TH AUGUST
LOCATION: ST GEORGE'S MARKET
TIME: 7PM
ADMISSION: FREE

This dynamic, talented trio are recognised for their skill, mastery and diversity of Irish Trad which enthral and energizes audiences

Ireland's most renowned Irish button accordionist Mairtin O'Connor, who began playing at the age of nine, has built a formidable musical relationship with Cathal Hayden, a multiple All Ireland winner of fiddle and banjo, along with the multi-talented Seamie O'Dowd vocalist, guitarist and song writer.

We are excited to showcase these virtuoso trad musicians alongside a host of others in Belfast's iconic St George's market venue.

Also appearing on the night are the traditional music trios of Niall Hanna, Rachel Mc Garrity & Damian Mc Kee and Alan Doherty, Robbie Walsh & Brendan Quinn.

Tickets for this event are free and available from your local community organisation.
